

Uxbridge Quaker meeting house is home to local members of the Religious Society of Friends, more commonly known as Quakers.

The Meeting House is a Grade II listed typical Georgian Quaker meeting house (1818) retaining its original features with an elders' gallery and full-size opening screens.

There is a large attractive garden around the building to provide peaceful reflection, which is open to all.

Uxbridge Quakers meet every Sunday at 10.30 am. Visitors are always welcome – simply turn up. A Quaker meeting creates a space of gathered stillness, where we can become aware of a deep and powerful spirit of love and truth that transcends our ordinary, day-to-day experiences.
